

RHODE ISLAND AREA RESOURCES FOR URGENT ISSUES OR A PSYCHIATRIC CRISIS

In an Emergency

If you are experiencing an emergency such as thoughts of harming yourself or others on which you feel you may act, if your feelings and symptoms are becoming intolerable, or if you feel your situation is life threatening, call 911 or go to the nearest emergency room.

Resources for Urgent Issues: Issues which are not life threatening but need urgent attention.

BH Link

Designed to provide immediate assistance to a person in a mental health or substance use crisis. Triage Center open 24 hours a day, 7 days a week:

Location: 975 Waterman Ave, East Providence, RI
24-hour Hotline: 401-414-5465

Patient Assessment Services at Butler Hospital

Provides comprehensive psychiatric assessment designed to provide an evaluation and inform your treatment. Open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. It is recommended you call ahead if possible.

Location: 345 Blackstone Boulevard, Riverview Building, Providence, RI
Phone: 844-401-0111

The Nearest Emergency Room: The emergency department at the nearest hospital can always be used during a mental health or substance abuse crisis.

24-Hour Phone Resources Available 7 Days a Week

National Suicide & Crisis Lifeline: dial 988

A resource if you are experiencing a crisis. The three digit number can be used anywhere in the United States.

The Samaritans of RI: 401-272-4044 or 800-365-4044
24-hour crisis hotline.